

CARG TERMS OF REFERENCE

Companion Animals Reference Group (CARG)

1. To provide a forum for key stakeholders to have input to issues relating to the Trust's Dog Policy Review.
2. To provide advice and make recommendations regarding the implementation of the revised Dog Policy
3. To provide a conduit for the dissemination of information to the local community regarding the policy.
4. To consider the Revised Dog Policy in the context of a broad range of park management issues and user groups.
5. The Companion Animals Reference Group is an advisory group. Decisions regarding the final policy rest with the Centennial Park and Moore Park Trust

Draft Principles/ Values of Operation of the Reference Group

- The importance of Centennial Parklands as an amenity for dogs and their owners is acknowledged.
- The needs and interests of all park user groups are acknowledged.
- The cultural and national significance of the Parklands is acknowledged
- The reference group is an open process with all views considered.