

contours
depression / knoll
small depression
mound, high point
rockface
bare rock
boulder, rocky ground
boulder cluster / boulder field pond
swamp / marsh
watercourse, canal
small watercourse
tap / spring
road
track / path
sealed (or fenced) path steps / cricket pitch sealed or surfaced area
building / canopy
fence / high fence
wall / high wall
manmade feature / drain inlet rubbish bin structure / monument pole / power line
open area
open with scattered trees rough open area
rough with scattered trees sand area
garden
forest
thick forest
thicker forest
thickest forest
waist-high grass
forbidden area
works area, mulch heaps

orienteering map of

Centennial Park

scale 1:7500

0 250 500m

contour interval 2 metres

starting point

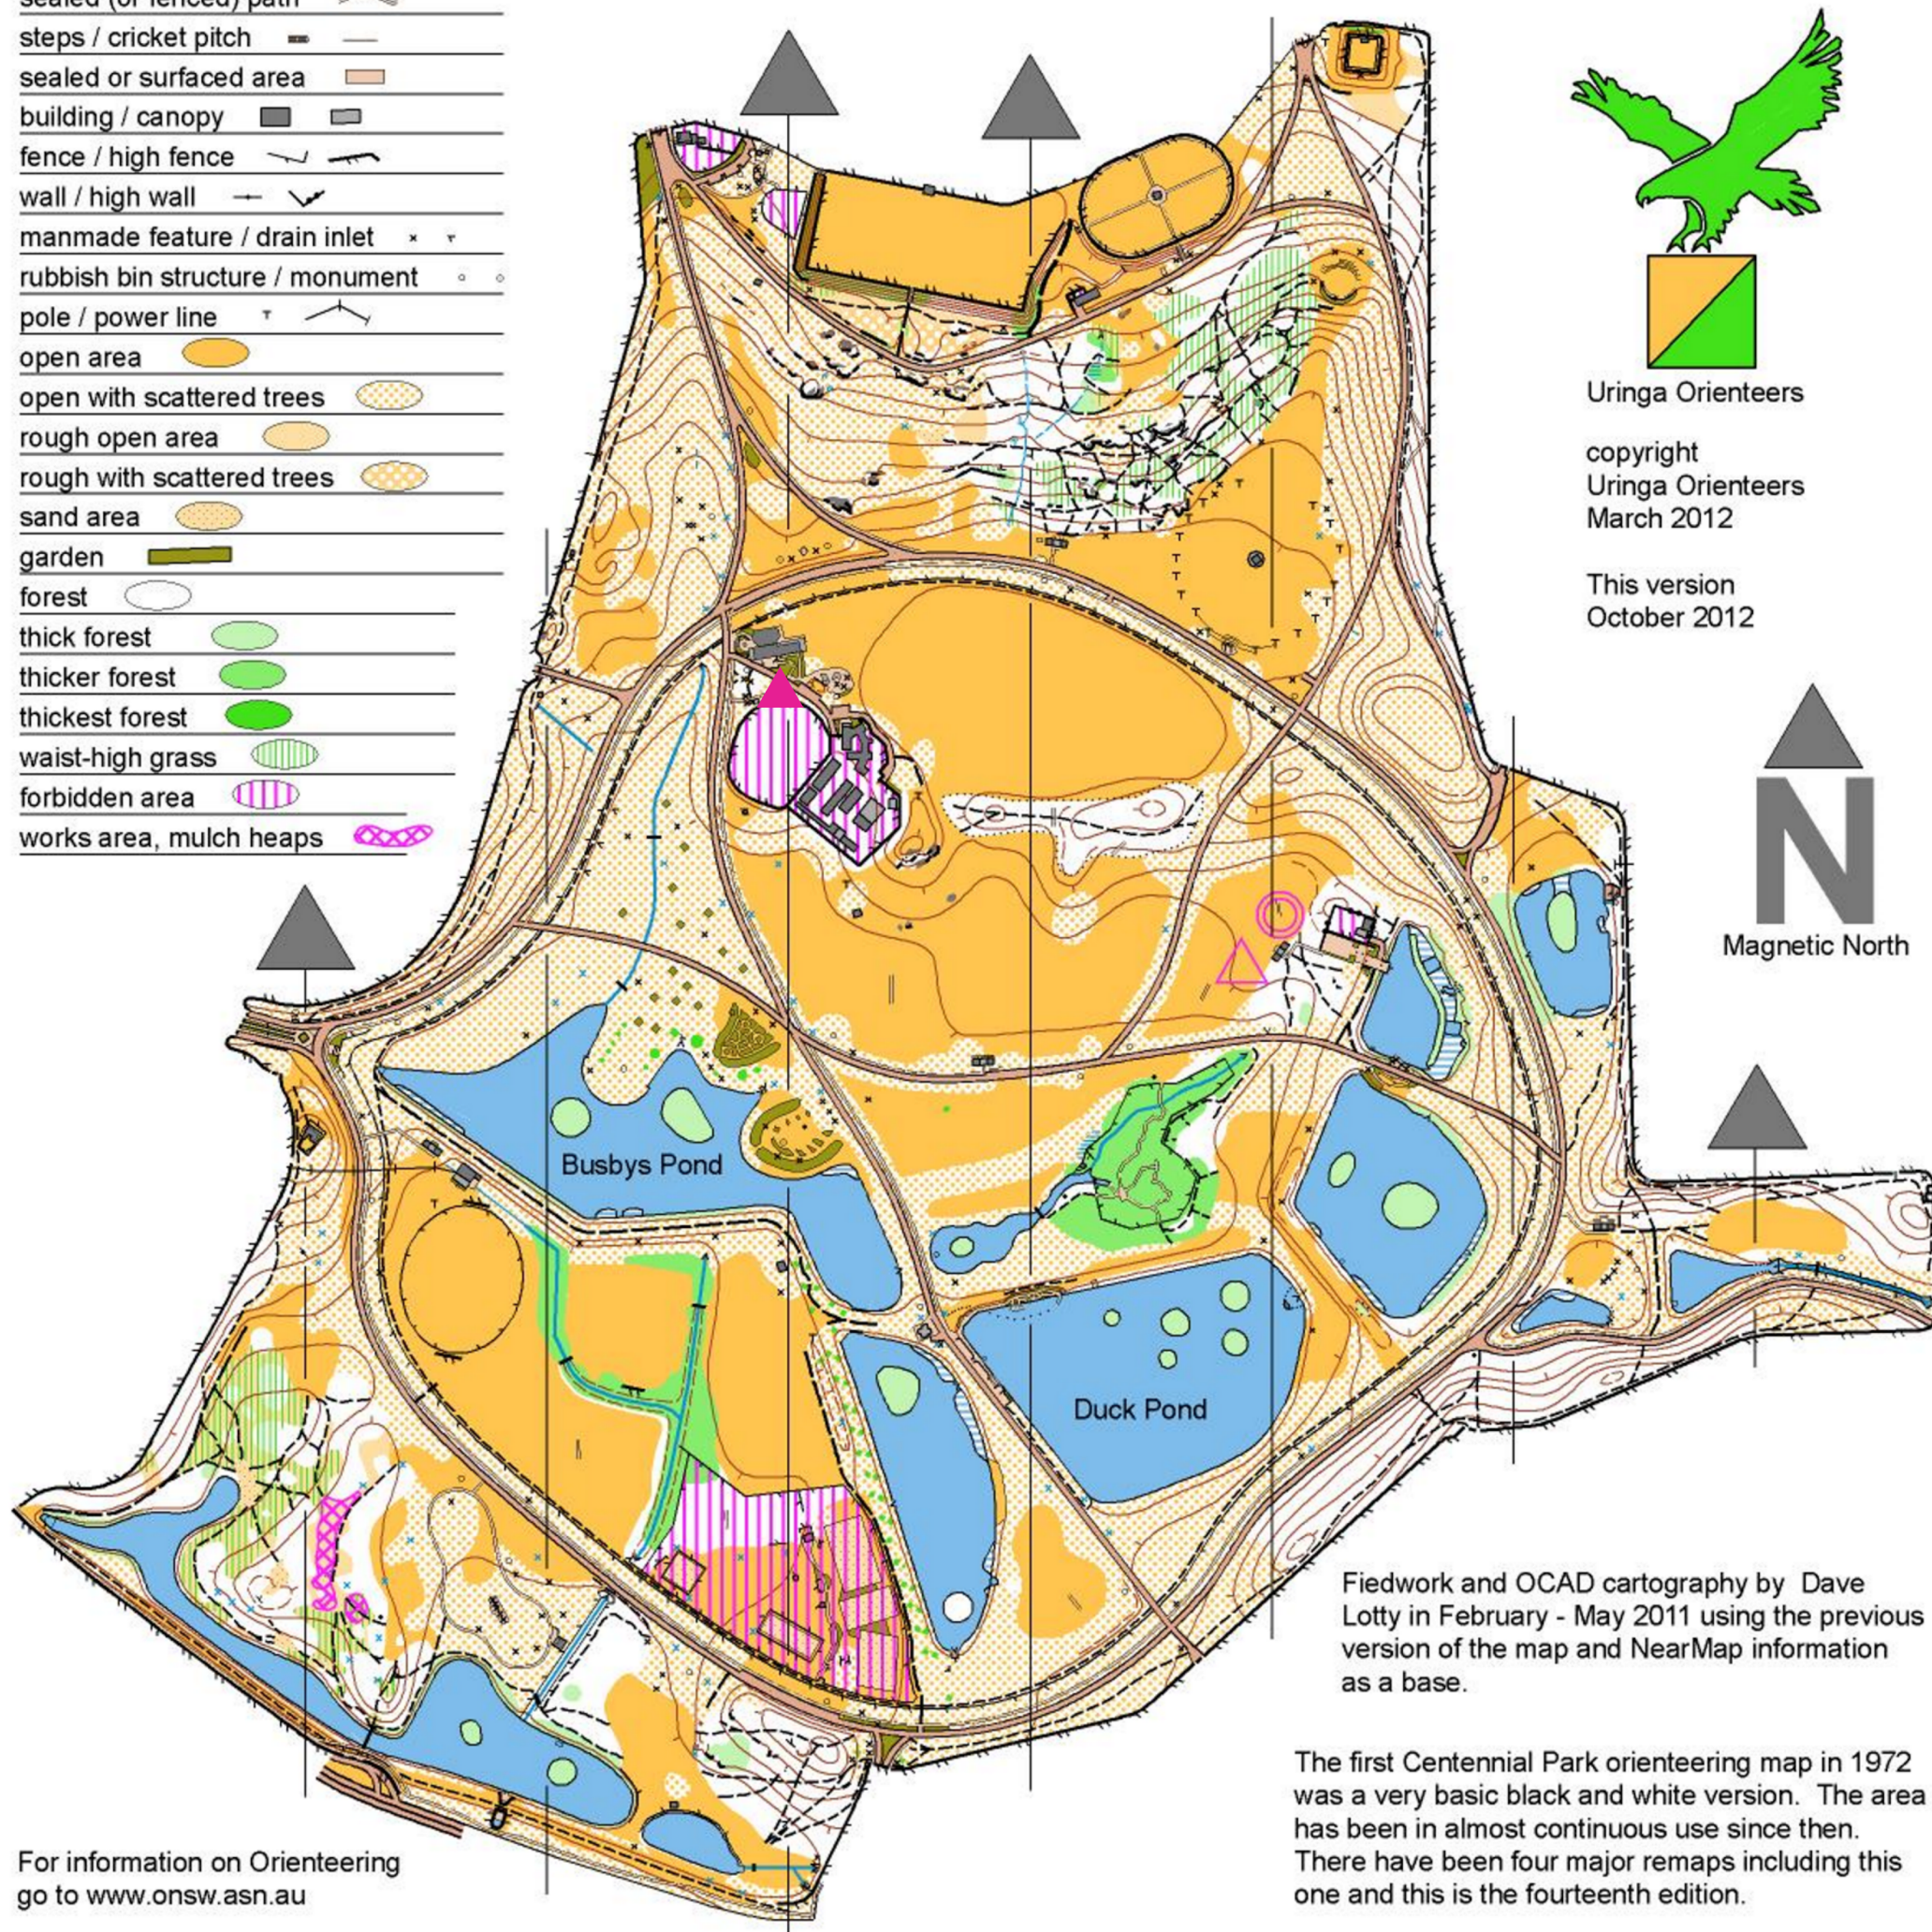

Uringa Orienteers

copyright
Uringa Orienteers
March 2012

This version
October 2012

Magnetic North

Fiedwork and OCAD cartography by Dave Lotty in February - May 2011 using the previous version of the map and NearMap information as a base.

The first Centennial Park orienteering map in 1972 was a very basic black and white version. The area has been in almost continuous use since then. There have been four major remaps including this one and this is the fourteenth edition.

For information on Orienteering go to www.onsw.asn.au